

Local Matters.

A synopsis of the President's messages will be found in our telegraph column.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Whipple, the popular humorist, has just returned from the tour of the South, and is again in the city.

Bacon's Court.—There were twenty-five delinquencies before the Register yesterday, ten or twelve of which were sent to the sheriff.

BALTIMORE.—The steamer Keokuk reached this port yesterday at a large number of passengers for the new bridge at Everett, in the Mungus and Charles river.

JOHN SILLON.—Goss, Motor and Hunt Stock were each five dollars by noon yesterday, and were offered at $10.00.

FRANCIS.—The mail from California arrived Monday in charge of Capt. Nichols. We are indebted to the local agent, Mr. W. H. Hale, for the safe, Franco papers.

MR. M. GORE.—of the attorney's bar, was at a dinner at the Hotel Louisville, and Mr. Conover, of the well known house of Gooch, Wick & Co., also of Louisville, ate at Gayoso House.

THANKS.—We thank the of the Charleston railroad, Irvin of the Mississippi, and Major of the State road, for courtesies. By the time of our leaving for the West, we had been given every courtesy, and our compatriotes deem themselves more professed.

ATMOSPHERE.—Our hymn column this morning, we send an offering addressed to the Rev. Mr. Smith, of the First Methodist Church, the well known local editor of the Bulletin. The happy event occurred in Louisville on Monday, the 26th instant. We are sure he will receive friends in this city, and hope every one of our countrymen will be present to witness the many pleasant returns to his joyous anniversary.
